WEEK 1: GOD IS CREATOR

HEY, PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS! Our powerful God created the world and everything in it in six days. God created all things for His own purposes. God's purpose for us is to have a relationship with Him. Use the following questions below to continue the conversation with your child.

1. Why did God create us?
2. Tell a story: Take a few moments and share your family history with your child. Share pictures or memories with your child. Retell the events surrounding his birth or arrival at your home. Take a few moments and tell him how special he is and that the world doesn't have a copy of him. He is a unique creation of God and made in His image.
3. Do you have a relationship with Jesus Christ? What is a relationship? How does your family relate with one another?

In the Start Here portion of the "God Is Creator" section in the T&T kid's handbook, your T&T kids were asked to draw or write about a time what they made something.

WEEK 2: GOD IS HOLY

HEY, PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS! God is holy, which means He is perfect, without sin, and always does what's right. We are not holy like God because we are sinners. But through Christ, we become holy in God's sight and God's Holy Spirit helps us do what's right. Use the following questions below to continue the conversation with your child.

1. What does it mean that God is holy?
2. Tell a story: Describe a time when you had a difficult time making the right decision. What did you feel as you debated all the options? How did you come to your conclusion in the end? What is something you want your child to know when he or she has to make hard decisions in the future?
3. How can you be holy? What do you think would change if a family decided to follow the example of Christ?

In the Start Here portion of the "God Is Holy" section in the T&T kid's handbook, your T&T kids were asked to write about or draw a time they had trouble making a right (or good) choice.

WEEK 3: GOD IS JUST

HEY, PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS! God is perfectly just, which means He always gives people what they deserve. The Bible says those who sin deserve death and punishment in hell forever. But God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to take our punishment and give us life forever in heaven. Use the following questions below to continue the conversation with your child.

1. What does it mean that God is just?
2. Tell a story: Describe a time when you experienced justice as a result of your actions. Describe what choices you made and how those led to the consequences you received. Were you judged fairly? Why is God the most qualified to judge the entire world?
3. What is something you see in this world that is unfair? How can God use your family to change this injustice in the world?

In the Start Here portion of the “God Is Just” section in the T&T kid’s handbook, your T&T kids were asked to draw or write about something they think is unfair.

Use the following questions below to continue the conversation with your child.

1. What does it mean that God is love?
2. Tell a story: Describe a time when you loved someone and didn't expect anything in return. You simply loved him and nothing could change the way you felt about him.
3. What are some ways in which we can love one another without expecting something in return?

In the Start Here portion of the "God Is Love" section in the T&T kid's handbook, your T&T kids were asked to draw or write about a way that they can show love to people.

EPHESIANS 2:4-5

1. What does it mean that God is eternal?
2. Tell a story: It's hard to imagine living without a beginning or end. Describe a time when you were bound by the constraints of time. How did it impact your overall situation?

WEEK 6: GOD IS ... REVIEW

HEY, PARENTS AND CAREGIVERS! God's character teaches us who we are. God is our Creator who is holy and just. We know that He created us for a relationship with Him, but we cannot have one because we are sinners who deserve the punishment of death for our sin. But because God is loving and eternal, we know that we are loved, and that He has made a way to save us from our punishment and give us life forever with Him. Use the following questions below to continue the conversation with your child.

1. How do we begin a relationship with God, our Creator?
2. Tell a story: Describe a time when you reflected on who God is. Why is it important to reflect on the character of God? How has your life been different because of learning about the character of God?
3. What is one thing you can do to show others the love of Christ this week?

In the "God Is ... Review" section of the "God Is ..." unit in the T&T kid's handbook, your T&T kids were asked to share what they have learned over the last five sections.
